Discussion is held with the Court.

Christopher E. Camacho, previously sworn, testifies.

Exhibit 1 is received in evidence.

Cassiopeia K. Miller, previously sworn, testifies.

Discussion continues.

THE COURT FINDS that Father was deprived of his parenting time when he came in to town. For that reason,

IT IS ORDERED granting the Petition to Enforce. As a reasonable remedy, it is ordered as follows:

1. Father shall be entitled to call the child every day at 6:00 p.m. Arizona time. He shall be entitled to speak to the child for up to 10 minutes. Father shall first call Mother's cell phone. If the child is unavailable on Mother's cell phone, Father shall call Xavier's cell phone.

2. The parenting time order is modified as follows: upon giving 30 days written or email notice to Mother, Father shall be entitled to parenting time from 9:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m. on two consecutive days. For the first three hours of Father's parenting time on the first day, Mother and nobody else shall be present to ensure that the child feels safe around Father, and thereafter, Father's parenting time is unsupervised.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED each party shall bear their own attorney's fees and expenses.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Father may have parenting time at other times agreed upon by the parties.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED the parenting time exchanges, in the event Father exercises parenting time in Arizona, will take place at the park at approximately 40th Street and Union Hills.

FILED: Exhibit Worksheet; Trial Worksheet

2:44 p.m. Matter concludes.
